Description of Activity	Parent/Carer Consent
Permission to Publish: The school newsletter, website and Facebook page provide opportunities to share the achievement of our students. Class Dojo is used to share information within individual classes; to do this, the school needs permission to publish. The school or Department of Education may publish information about students for the purposes of sharing experiences with other students and the broader community. Such information may include your child's name, age, class and information collected by the school such as photographs, sound and visual recordings, your child's work and interactive media. The school Facebook page does not include student names. If a name is required, express permission would be sought. The communications in which your child's information may be published include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Public websites of the Department including the school website, the Department's intranet (staff only), blogs and wikis.• Departmental publications including the school newsletter, annual school magazine, school report and promotional material published in print and electronically including Department websites. Department of Education and school social media accounts, such as YouTube, Facebook, Twitter and Class Dojo. Parents should be aware that when information is published on public websites and social media channels it can be linked to by third parties and may be discoverable online for several years. Search engines may also cache or retain copies of published information.	I have read the information about publishing student information. I give publishing permission for: School Website: <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No School Newsletter: <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No School Facebook page: <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Class Dojo: <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
Online Services: The Department provides filtered access to the internet in schools, with a secure learning portal. Through this portal students are able to access their personalised email account and securely store their data. These resources enable students to collaborate with peers, publish online and create personalised research portals. When accessing some online services, data, including your child's name and files they have saved, are stored with the online application service provider in a location outside of the Department of Education network.	<input type="checkbox"/> I give permission to access online services <input type="checkbox"/> I do not give permission to access online services

Local Excursions: Occasionally we attend excursions to local venues such as the Bundanoon Oval. These visits involve travel by foot under supervision of teachers. These are held during school hours and have the approval of the Principal.	<input type="checkbox"/> I give permission <input type="checkbox"/> I do not give permission
Permission to View: On occasions, students may be given the opportunity to view media content as part of the school curriculum. These are G or PG rated and are approved by the Principal.	<input type="checkbox"/> I give permission <input type="checkbox"/> I do not give permission
Personal Development Program: The Department of Education instructs all schools to teach child protection lessons from Kindergarten to Year 6. Areas include self-esteem, communication, assertiveness, drug education and prevention of sexual abuse. These are essential components of student development and understanding. Precise anatomical terms for private body parts may be used in lessons. If you have any concerns about the content, please contact your child's teacher.	<input type="checkbox"/> I give permission to attend <input type="checkbox"/> I do not give permission to attend
